

University of King's College essay contest for Grade 12 students

Please complete this form and email it with your essay to Kayleigh at kayleigh.shield@ukings.ca no later than Monday, March 30.

Question to be answered: At King's, the books students read all pose a challenge—to the reader, to society, to literary canon, to our own ideas of the past or present. Through reading these books, students learn to question their own assumptions. Choose a book that you think is challenging, and tell us why that challenge is important?

Contest rules:

- Any current Grade 12 student can apply
- Essay must be no longer than 1,000 words and no part of it can be planned, drafted or written by generative AI.
- Students must pick one work of literature to answer the question
- Essay entries must be submitted in Word or PDF format; please include your name and a title at the top of the document

*First name: _____ *Last name: _____

*High school: _____

*Home address: _____

*City: _____ *Province/state: _____

*Postal code/zip code: _____

*Email address: _____

*mandatory field

By submitting an essay for this contest, you confirm you are currently in Grade 12 and consent to having your essay shared on the ukings.ca website if selected as the winning entry by the prize committee. You also certify that this essay is wholly your own new and original work, and confirm that no part of this essay was planned, drafted or written by generative AI.

I would like to receive communications about future events at King's.

Please reach out to Kayleigh with any questions, at the email above.