

REPRESENTATIONS OF COLONIZATION & DE-COLONIZATION

UNIVERSITY OF KING'S COLLEGE • HALIFAX

2023 LECTURE SERIES

Drawing from art, museology, literature, science and philosophy, Representations of Colonization and De-Colonization features public lectures by leading international authorities on the ramifications of and resistance to the exploitation and systemic marginalization of Indigenous and Black communities and their cultures in Canada and abroad.

- To register for the virtual events, please visit the accompanying links.
- For questions please contact: justina.spencer@ukings.ca or tim.clarke@ukings.ca

JANUARY 24 | 7pm | KING'S ALUMNI HALL

*THE DISPLAY OF A HAUDENOSAUNEE SILK
PATCHWORK QUILT at the Caughnawaga Grand Agricultural & Industrial Exhibition*

Dr. Lisa Binkley | Assistant Professor, Department of History, Dalhousie University

FEBRUARY 7 | 7PM | ZOOM | To register: tinyurl.com/mw44rrzw

*"HE IS REMARKABLE FOR ... WEARING A HANDKERCHIEF TIED ROUND HIS HEAD":
Resistance as Escape & Cultural Retention in Art & the Fugitive Slave Archive*

Dr. Charmaine A. Nelson | Provost Professor of Art History, Department of History of Art and Architecture & Director, Slavery North Initiative, University of Massachusetts Amherst

FEBRUARY 14 | 7pm | KING'S ALUMNI HALL

*OF "GOOD AFRICANS" & WITCH DOCTORS:
The Entangled Story of How West African Activists Worked to Decolonize Late Colonial Film*

Dr. Philip Zachernuk | Associate Professor, Department of History, Dalhousie University

FEBRUARY 28 | 7pm | KING'S ALUMNI HALL

NUCLEAR EXPOSURES:

Photographic Archives of Canadian Uranium Mining

Dr. Aaron Wright | Assistant Professor, Department of History, Dalhousie University & History of Science and Technology, University of King's College

MARCH 14 | 7PM | ZOOM | To register: tinyurl.com/3e6rm5nx

A HISTORY OF VIOLENCE:

Legacies of Struggle and Resistance in the Fight Against Environmental Racism in Canada

Dr. Ingrid Waldron | Professor & HOPE Chair in Peace and Health, Department of History, McMaster University

MARCH 28 | 7pm | KING'S ALUMNI HALL

REPRESENTATIONS OF DECOLONIZATION AT A GENERATION REMOVED

Dr. Asha Jeffers | Assistant Professor, Department of English & Gender and Women's Studies, Dalhousie University

APRIL 4 | 7pm | KING'S ALUMNI HALL

ILLAVUT/ OUR RELATIVES:

*Transforming Relations Between Inuit and Institutions
Through Care, Mentorship, and Collaboration*

Dr. Heather Igloliorte | Tier 1 University Research Chair in Circumpolar Indigenous Arts, Department of Art History, Concordia University

APRIL 11 | 7PM | ZOOM | To register: tinyurl.com/spfd2vv9

SILENCED SPACES:

Tactile & Aural Legacies of the Dutch Atlantic

Dr. Anuradha Gobin | Associate Professor, Department of Art & Art History, University of Calgary