

Undergraduate Application

Instructions for Applicants

Explanation of Terms

Early Fall Admission is available to all applicants who have completed their application by January 31.

Official Transcript: If sent by student, the transcript must be in an envelope sealed by the school. Transcripts may also be sent directly from the school via mail. Grade 12 applicants from semestered schools must submit their first semester final grades in addition to a list of the classes they'll be taking second semester. Applicants from non-semestered schools are required to submit their midterm grades.

Self reported Grades: Only applies to Early Fall Admission. Students must include their Grade 11 finals and a list of the courses they plan to take in Grade 12.

Autobiographical Sketch: Required for Bachelor of Journalism Honours (BJH) only. 1,000 words describing why you want to study journalism. We want to know something about your academic strengths (and weaknesses), your general interests, the work you may have done in journalism and other fields, and anything else that would contribute to a well-rounded story about yourself.

Application fee: $65. Pay by cheque, money order, bank draft, credit card or debit card/cash (in person only). Make cheques payable to "University of King's College" and print full name of applicant on back. From outside Canada or the US, only send credit card information or a bank draft in Canadian funds.

Mature student: Canadian citizen or permanent resident who is 21 years of age or older by the first day of classes and is not eligible for admission on the basis of the regular admission requirements.

To Apply

- Please complete all sections of the application.
- Payment of the application fee is required to process your application.
- It is the responsibility of the applicant to ensure that all supporting documents are received by the Registrar's Office.
- Be sure to sign the declaration on the final page of the application before submitting.
- Submit your completed application to the Registrar's Office.
- Please allow three weeks for processing time after your completed application has been received.

Tips

- Enrolment is limited, and offers of admission are made on a rolling basis. Apply as early as possible.
- Make sure that the names on all your documents match.
- In all future correspondence with the Registrar's Office, please include your full name and a second piece of identification (ie: birthdate).
- All documents become the property of the University of King's College and will not be returned.
- If possible, please submit all documentation together.
- If you consider yourself an applicant with special needs, please contact the Registrar's Office to be advised of services available at the University of King's College and Dalhousie University. This information will be used only to assess whether the universities are able to provide the necessary supports. It will not be considered as part of the admissions process.
- Scholarship information and applications available online at www.ukings.ca/admissions/finances/scholarships/. Scholarship essay and major awards deadline is January 15th. High school transcripts supporting your scholarship application must be received by March 1st.

Personal Information and Protection of Privacy

The information requested on this form is collected under the authority of the King's College Act (c.44, S.N.S. 1998) and is needed to assign your university identification number; to process your application for admission; to verify your qualifications and determine your eligibility for admission; for administration of student records, scholarships, and awards; for provision of student and alumni services; and for university planning and research. Upon registration at King's, this information will form part of your student record and will be used to document your progress in an academic program. Students' personal information may be disclosed, as required, to academic and administrative units; to donors or representatives of university-administered scholarships/bursaries/awards; to federal and provincial agencies as legally required; and to student governance associations. For details on the use and disclosure of students' personal information, please contact the Registrar at (902) 422-1271.
