

King's Photo Essay Contest for Grade 12 Students

Please fill out this form and send it along with your photo essay by March 8 to Josh Young at josh.young@ukings.ca.

Contest rules

- Entries must come from students who are currently in grade 12.
- Take six or seven photos that tell a story of what it is like to be in a certain location (e.g. your home, your neighbourhood, your community).
- Students will write a 100-300-word introduction to introduce the piece, but keep in mind that your photos should speak for themselves. Include short captions for each photo.
- We do not want students breaking COVID-19 protocols or putting themselves in danger to complete this contest. Please keep safety in mind while you plan your photo essay.
