

2022/2023 AWARDS APPLICATION
COVER SHEET

Name: _____

Home province (if not Canadian, home country) _____

Program of study _____

Year of study completed in 2021/2022:  First  Second  Third  Fourth  Other _____

Award(s) I am applying for (check all that apply):

Please note: These awards, with the exception of the John F. Godfrey Journalism Book Award, are for students returning to the University of King's College for another year of study.

- Michael Elliott Awards (Two awards of $1,100) - These awards are to be made to returning students in good academic standing, who display integrity of character, a spirited concern for the lives of others and who have made an all-around contribution to university life.
- Beaver Club Award (One award of $1,900) - The award is to be given to a returning King's student who, like members of the Beaver Club, has achieved above average academic standing and has made a significant contribution to extra-curricular activities which enhance the quality of life at King's.
- Sandra MacLeod Awards (Two awards of $2,200, one annual, one renewable) - These awards are made to a student in any year of his or her degree with a good scholastic record, who by the fullest use of his or her qualities of character and mind, make a contribution to the University of King's College. One award is given on an annual basis while the other is renewable up to three years. Recipients of the renewable Sandra McLeod award must re-apply each year.
- New Brunswick Award (One award of $750) - The award is to be given to a student from New Brunswick in good academic standing and who has contributed to university life. Preference will be given to students entering second year.
- Michael Saunders Award (One award of $550) - The award is to be given to a returning student from New Brunswick with a satisfactory academic standing, who shows financial need and who has made a positive commitment and contribution to University of King's College life. If there are a number of qualified applicants, preference may be given to a student entering Holy Orders of the Anglican Church of Canada.
- J. Mark DeWolf (One award of $250) – Established in honour of J. Mark DeWolf, BA(Hons)'68, President of the KTS 1966-1967, this award recognizes a King's student who has made an outstanding contribution to the King's Theatrical Society.
- King's Bookstore Co-op Award (One award of a $150 credit to King's Co-op Bookstore) - The Award will be given to a returning student who takes social action on behalf of the King's community. The spirit of the Award is to support a student who has a sincere interest in and has demonstrated initiative to bettering campus life for all.
- John F. Godfrey Journalism Book Award (One award of $100 credit to King's Co-op Bookstore) - The award will be given to a journalism student in either program who has made a significant contribution to the School of Journalism at King's.

Application checklist:

- Cover Sheet (print this form)
- Cover letter
- Resume
- Two Letters of Reference

Please ensure your resume and/or cover letter includes:

- Student activities and service to King's (if applicable)
- Service to the community (if applicable)
- Academic information (including GPA and other academic awards)
- Current contact information

Completed submissions are to be submitted digitally to Sonya Jampolsky (sonya.jampolsky@ukings.ca) in the Advancement Office by February 28, 2022. For more information, please also contact Sonya at sonya.jampolsky@ukings.ca.