

University of King's College photo essay contest for high school students

Please fill out this form and email it, along with your photo essay, to Josh Young by 9 a.m. AST Friday, January 6, 2023: josh.young@ukings.ca.

Theme: Create a photo essay showing a sense of place

Contest rules:

- Any grade 11 or 12 students can apply
- Students must submit six to 10 photos that tell a story of what it's like to be in a certain location, each with a one or two-sentence caption that moves the story along. A 100 to 300-word introduction that sets up the photo essay should also be included.
- Students should submit their work via a Google Drive folder or by attaching documents in an email. Photos should be sent as their own files, with the written portion to be sent as its own file.

First name: _____ Last name: _____

High school: _____

Home address: _____

City: _____ Province/state: _____

Postal code/zip code: _____

Email address: _____

*mandatory field

By submitting an essay for this contest, you confirm you are in grade 11 or 12 and consent to having your essay shared on the ukings.ca website if selected as one of the winning entries.

I would like to receive communications about future events at King's