

CTMP/GERM 3610 | Memory, Politics, Place: Berlin's 20th Century (in Berlin, Germany)
May 2023

APPLICATION FORM

Application Deadline: Friday, January 13th, 2023

Eligibility criteria:

Students must meet the following criteria to participate in the Contemporary Studies Program's Berlin Study Abroad Course. If you do not meet the criteria but would still like to be considered, you may contact the course director, Dr. Sarah Clift, at sarah.clift@ukings.ca to request special permission.

- Have completed 5 full academic credit courses at an accredited university or have permission from the course director;
- Be in good academic standing with a cumulative GPA of 2.3 or above;
- Be eligible to register at King's or Dalhousie for the period of the international experience.

Name: _____

Student Number: _____

Country/Countries of Citizenship: _____

Date of Birth: _____

Address in Halifax (valid until: _____):

Current Telephone Number: _____

Permanent Address: _____

Preferred Email Address: _____

 All information regarding the course will be sent to this address; please check it regularly.

Degree Program (BSc, BA, etc.): _____

Current Major: _____

Current Year of Study: _____

Cumulative GPA (including Fall Term 2022 grades, where available): _____

Expected Graduation: Spring 20____ Fall 20____

How did you learn about this course?

Personal Statement:

Please attach a short personal statement (500 word maximum) outlining the reasons why you want to study abroad in Berlin. Describe how this course fits into your academic and/or personal goals (and indicate if you intend to take it as a Contemporary Studies or German class) and explain how you might benefit from a study abroad experience.

Academic Transcript:

Please also attach an unofficial transcript of your academic record.

Completed application packages should be submitted by email to Sharon Brown, CSP
Administrative Assistant, at Sharon.brown@ukings.ca.

For your email submission, please format your subject heading as follows:

[Berlin application, Your first name, your family name]