

North Star Vision Statement

To solidify the University of King's College as a leader among Canadian universities, dedicated to supporting and championing the academic, personal and professional success of African Nova Scotian and Black Students by dismantling barriers and creating opportunities.

We aim to foster a positive and inclusive educational experience and campus culture that supports and interconnects African Nova Scotian and Black Students, staff, faculty and the surrounding African Nova Scotian and Black Communities, where students can live, learn and thrive.
